

SIMPLY PROPHETIC MINISTRIES

Meet Deacon Sandra Kelly

Deacon Sandra Kelly was ordained as a deacon in 2009 at Simply Prophetic Ministries – A More Excellent Way Temple. She is a devoted servant of God who carries a genuine passion for helping others in any capacity she can. With a heart rooted in compassion and humility, she exemplifies what it means to serve both in ministry and in everyday life.

By profession, Deacon Kelly is a nurse, faithfully caring for the physical needs of others, while also ministering to their spiritual and emotional well-being. Her life is a true reflection of service, as she walks out her calling with grace, love, and dedication. She stands firmly on the Word of God, drawing strength and encouragement from her favorite scriptures. One of her guiding beliefs is that nothing can separate her from the love of God (Romans 8:39). She also lives by the truth found in Galatians 2:20, declaring that the life she now lives is by faith in Jesus Christ, who gave His life for her.

Deacon Sandra Kelly continues to be a shining example of faith, service, and unwavering commitment to God, impacting lives through her kindness, strength, and servant's heart.

Ordained Deacon