

Official Biography of Pastor Taufiki Enea Lee

Pastor Taufiki Enea Lee was born on January 7, 1974, in Atlanta, Georgia, and was adopted as an infant by the late Thomas and Bertha Lee. He was raised in Forestville, Maryland, in a home saturated with worship and the rich sounds of gospel legends such as Tramaine Hawkins, Walter Hawkins, André Crouch, and Shirley Caesar—an atmosphere that helped shape his lifelong love for the presence of God.

By the age of nine, Pastor Taufiki was saved and filled with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in other tongues at Free Gospel Deliverance Church under the leadership of Bishop Ralph E. Green. At seventeen, he received and answered the call to ministry, beginning a journey marked by discipline, devotion, and deep spiritual formation.

In the summer of 1992, Pastor Taufiki connected with the late Apostle Sylvia Sartor and the City of God Christian Fellowship Church family, birthed under Zion Ministries. During this pivotal season, he underwent intense spiritual training and activation in the nine gifts of the Spirit and was firmly established in prophetic ministry.

A gifted vocalist from childhood, Pastor Taufiki has ministered on numerous stages and in theater productions, boldly standing unashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation. He has won multiple talent competitions and has recorded in various studios over the years. His prophetic worship and clarion call to the nations can be heard through the spontaneous worship experience “Sound of Heaven,” as well as on the project Deeper Realms by Apostle, Dr. Malik Edwards.

Pastor Taufiki graduated from Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland, earning a degree in Chemistry. During his collegiate years, he served prominently as a Bible study leader and teacher, participating in campus crusades and various ministry initiatives, impacting lives both spiritually and academically.
