Official Biography of Prophetess Antoinette Michele Lee

Prophetess Antoinette Michele Lee was born on February 6, 1969, in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Horace M. Foster and Mildred Foster-Dixon. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system and later earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Special Education from Coppin State College in December 2000.

At the age of seventeen, while visiting a small church housed in the basement of an old bowling alley, Prophetess Lee experienced a life-altering encounter with the Lord Jesus Christ. On Palm Sunday in 1988, she publicly accepted Christ and received the infilling of the Holy Spirit. During this pivotal season, Apostle Sylvia Sartor and the Family of Zion Ministries – City of God Christian Fellowship lovingly embraced and nurtured her as she began her journey of healing and spiritual formation.

Through Schools of the Holy Ghost, intense deliverance, and inner healing, Prophetess Lee came to fully acknowledge and embrace the call of God upon her life. The Father uses her powerfully through dreams, visions, and the prophetic proclamation of His Word—both spoken and sung. Her ministry carries a strong evangelistic mantle, with a special burden for troubled youth, the brokenhearted, and those who have been rejected or cast aside.

Prophetess Lee has traveled nationally and internationally proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout regions of the United States, Bermuda, Guadeloupe, Honduras, Costa Rica, and Israel.

On October 24, 1999, she was ordained under the leadership of Apostle Virginia Ford and Fire Is Burning Full Gospel Fellowship, Inc.
